Course Overview

Certificate IV PSP40416 IN GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATIONS

Are you adaptable, enjoy a good challenge and revel in working on highly classified and confidential matters? Then Government Investigations might just be for you! This qualification is required for those wishing to become government investigators and/or regulatory compliance professionals.

Billions of dollars each year effectively vanish or never even hit the wall in all government sectors especially in agencies that handle large sums of public money, like taxation revenue and welfare payments. The Government has to consistently mitigate the risk of the public and public servants who defraud the system or even take financial or labour advantage due to security or reporting weaknesses. The risk of fraud also arises out of implementing new, large scale government programs which not only hurt the bottom line of the program but effectively Australian Citizens.

Fraud will always be on the radar and Government Investigations is one of the most important and energising careers in the Australian Government to date. The skills you possess and the knowledge you gain from studying with the Academy will provide you with an inventory second to none in this exciting field!
